June 12, 2014

Schlotthauer, Betty (Lundgren) age 82 of Arden Hills, passed away from cancer on Thursday, June 12, 2014. She was born to Albert and Francis Lundgren on April 2, 1932. After leaving her hometown of Gibbon, Minnesota, Betty graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College. She married John Schlotthauer in 1963 and dedicated herself to raising two sons. Betty later returned to the workplace and ultimately retired from Mid-America Mutual. During retirement she traveled across the world and was an active community volunteer. Betty was a passionate member of Grace University Lutheran Church for over 50 years. Betty always loved having fun and looked for, invented if necessary, reasons to entertain and celebrate. She was known for her love of life and learning, her compassion and her concern as a global citizen. She will be deeply missed, especially by her son's families, whom she always found opportunities to engage and will remember her whenever a favorite bird flutters by. Betty is survived by her sons, Rob (Debrah) and Steve; grandchildren, Max, Cole, Anna, Luke and sister Bernice Hanson. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by husband John, brothers Lester and Chuck, and sister Shirley Youngblom. Special thanks to the angels from Synergy home care and St. Therese at St. Odilia hospice, who simply loved her.
