“ Memories of over 50 years. May BJ you enjoy a life and freedom now that in some ways you missed while in the body. There is no death and thanks for the gifts you brought to my life as we first met when I was a "baby priest" at Maternity of Mary. Love and Prayers and Gratitude, , Fr. Bill PS. I will not make your Farewell Service.

“ Our sympathies are with your family on the loss of your mother. What a wonderful mother she must have been to have so many wonderful children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. You will be in our prayers during this time and we pray God will welcome her home with loving arms.
