“ I was surprised and saddened to see Beverly's obituary in the paper today. My first job out of college in 1994 was at First Bank where Beverly befriended me - "the little redhead" is what she called me. I am so grateful for her mentorship and friendship that started back then - one we maintained for many years. Beverly was so caring and gave so much even in spite of the tragic losses she experienced. She had a positive impact on this little redhead's life and I will always be grateful for God putting us in each other's path.
