“ I'll never forget the endless hours of our making up "love you forever" Beatle stories in the little camper your parents kept in the backyard. Trips to Grand Marais, the Light House walk. Our daily trip(s) to the New Brighton Drug Store. Walking around blocks and blocks just to jabber and catch a glimps of cute boys. How we couldn't wait for your Mom to have "Baking Day". Oh the smells and tastes. The green apple tree and how we boiled them in coffee cans. Your accordion! So many fond childhood memories. Thank you Bev. Laurel

“ We had to dramatically adjust our stop-offs on the way home in the last years, but I enjoy thinking about the many times we stopped at Mannings in S.E. Mpls. for a beer and a patty melt...and then mint chocolate chip ice cream. We loved that place.

Bev came to see us at work as often as possible and that was wonderful gift to us because otherwise we wouldn't have been able to see her much. And she called every week to see what we were up to. She loved work and missed it a lot and, really, did not wish to let it go at all.

*She had a spirit to keep on going that is for sure. Missing Bev a lot.
Love, Jean*
