

Beverly McGinty

December 18, 2011

McGinty, Beverly nee Durland (73) was born in Faribault, MN on 09/09/38. She lived in Golden Valley for 43 years. She suffered a stroke and died peacefully on Dec. 15, 2011. She is preceded in death by parents, Mary & Woodrow Durland and her sister, Patricia Muncy. Survived by her daughters, Michelle Stober and Shannon (Keith) Spillett along with her precious grandchildren, Ryan (7), Ava (4), Shane (4) and Olivia (2). She is survived by her loving brother, Dan Durland; niece, Sue and many other loving nieces, nephews, and her cat Aggie. Bev embraced life and enjoyed beauty in all things. She loved to go for walks, look at bugs with her grandkids, say hello to strangers and look for angels. She worked at Honeywell & American Hardware Ins. for years, but enjoyed retired life by volunteering, feeding birds, lunching with her pals and playing with her grandkids. Visitation will be held 12/19 from 4-7 PM at Hillside Chapel, 2610 19th Ave NE. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 AM 12/20 at St. Olaf Church, 215 S. 8th St. with visitation one hour prior. Memorials preferred. Washburn-McReavy 612-781-1999

“ I will miss "Babe" and her laugh . We always discussed the great times at the cabin and she would remember details I forgot. She will be missed by all who loved her. My prayers go out to the family.
