“ Steve and Debbie-I'm sorry Patti and I can't be there today as we are in Fountain Hills where your Mom and Dad enjoyed many winters in their own retirement years. Most days here I go past their old Gunsight Drive address and think of them. I always see your Mom's beautiful smile and think of the kind, loving, and encouraging words she always had for me. I've always missed not seeing her more often in my adult years. Today I will go down to Fountain Park, sit, and think of all the good memories of my wonderful, kind Aunt Bev. We are so sorry for your loss. Have a wonderful celebration of her life.

Your cousin,
Vern
