

Beverly Ann Peterson

July 29, 1934 - February 9, 2020

Peterson, Beverly Ann age 86, of Nine Mile Creek Senior Living, Bloomington, MN died February 9, 2020 from congestive heart failure. She is survived by sister, Sharon (Eldon) Ploetz; daughter, Stephanie Peterson and triplet children, Robert Gregory (Colleen) Peterson, Leisa Carston & Michelle Peterson as well as 6 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren and beloved granddogs, Sophie Peterson and Kasey Carston. Beverly loved music and was a soloist and actress in high school and college; played comedic roles, designed sets and sang in Southwood Mother Singers; and sang for years in the St. Stephen's Lutheran Church choir. A lady of strong character and personality, a teacher by nature, she was art instructor and department head at Blake Middle School in Hopkins for over thirty years; known as Mrs. Pete, she was honored to "reign" over Pete's Street and loved when former students looked her up later in life. Post retirement, she used her charm and talent selling art and jewelry at The Museum Company and QVC. She enjoyed reading, bridge, travel and, especially, her timeshares and sun tanning in Florida and Breezy Point, MN. Funeral service is at Washburn McReavy, 2300 West Old Shakopee Road, Bloomington, MN at 11am February 16, 2020 with visitation at 10am. The family also wishes to acknowledge, and thank, the caring staff of Nine Mile Creek Senior Living and the compassionate caregivers of Fairview Homecare and Hospice.
