“ Marsha and Family,

I am aware that it has been awhile and yet, I imagine that it is still quite sad to loss your mom. Marsha - I send you a great big bunch of love. You seemed to your friends at work to be about as great of a daughter as we all hope we can be.

Blessings,

Emily

“ Kurt and family;

You and Bonnie have given me many cherished memories...all the family fun and times at your home (ever since I was small), laughing with your great daughters, and especially enjoying and appreciating Bonnie's wonderful sense of humor, contagious and beautiful smile, true and genuinely warm heart and loving, caring personality. She definitely is in a place created specifically for a soul as dear as her...

Love, and Blessed Memories to all of you,

Cindy

“ Hi, Marsha,
I was sad to hear about the passing of your mother. I love the picture you have posted here...she looks like a beautiful, kind person. Please take care of yourself during this difficult time and remember that many people are thinking about you. Connie

“ Many memories, many memories...
Such a beautiful woman...kind and loving, sweet, generous. I remember her foster care years, what a wonderful testimony to her love. She is with Jesus now, and we will be able to see her again when our spirit leaves this earth.
