“ There is no greater memory than the sound of a friend’s laughter. “Babs” invested many hours working out and we shared plenty of laughs while training at The Gym in Plymouth. He was very positive and outgoing. His sense of humor and quick smile never failed to energize others, I will always cherish those memories.

“OMG!! Senior year homing football game against the park center pirates. They were beating rhs, badly, by half time. After half time, the pirated were extremely late showing back up on mielky field. It turned out that people(?) had chained the opposing team into the girls locker room! Again, laughter filled the halls of RHS the following monday boasting of weekend heroics. Crazy times with great people!!

“Vehicles were rolled onto their hoods behind rhs auto shop and at rex greenwalds party... I believe russ schartz station wagon was one of them. Old age, and 40+ yrs, has takin its toll and I have no recollection of who was involved. Only rolling laughter and boosted stories echoing in the halls of RHS. RIP Brother - the Party Wagon Lives On!
