“ Brad and I had become friends through work as he was a vendor over of mine - over the course of 15 years. We had become friends and we loved to talk hockey with one another - he a gopher fan and me a sioux fan. Believe it or not we were pretty civil :) We even managed to meet up at a final five years ago.

He would always update me on how Gordie was doing and was so proud of him. My heart goes out to the family during the holidays knowing this will not be an easy time.

Brad was always upbeat and great to chat with - I will miss that. He was a good friend.

“ Good Morning Brad,
Still hard to believe you are gone from this earth.
I have so many things that I want to share with you, just like we did before. My life has a vacancy, where my relationship with you once was. In many ways I feel lost without you here and it is hard to go on.
We understood each other like no one else did or does.
Within the past 12 years and especially in the last 6 years, God was knitting our hearts together. We were not aware of just what He was doing, until the Lord would give us those special moments of realization.
Remember? Both you and I knew it was Jesus speaking into our lives and we were in awe of his majesty!
Who will I have that with now? You were one of the biggest blessings in my life and always will be.
You understand how sad my heart is.
I am struggling Brad and grieve for you deeply.

For the rest of my life here on this earth,
I will honor you and glorify our savior Jesus until he calls me home where you are now.
- with love from your sister, Lori <><

“ *My dear brother Brad,
Oh how I want you back!
I wake up to start another day with a deep ache in my heart.
A part of me is missing, gone.
It is a pain so bad, I can hardly bare it. My live for you will never end.*
- sis, Lori <><
