“ I will never forget meeting Brad a long time ago, maybe 8 years. But my most vivid memories are of hanging out with Brad in Phoenix, Arizona at Taylor Marx’s bachelor party in 2019. He and I bought matching hats at a rodeo and had a great weekend in general. We kept in touch up to Taylor’s wedding and for a long time after. What a genuine and fun-loving guy. I can’t remember not having a smile around Brad.

“ While we haven’t seen him in many years, a smile comes to our faces when we think of Brad as he was a very nice young man. We remember many days of basketball that included Brad dating back to middle & high school. Our deepest sympathy to the entire family.
