

Brandon Michael Thomas

August 4, 1985 - February 18, 2026

Brandon was the beloved son of Natalie Larson and Craig and Scott Thomas-Forss. He was a devoted father to his two children, Ellen and Cooper, with whom he shared countless cherished moments. Brandon's love for his children shone through in the time he spent with them, whether building intricate Lego creations or simply enjoying their company. His playful spirit and ability to connect with Ellen & Cooper reflected his enduring sense of wonder and joy.

A true movie enthusiast, Brandon had a deep passion for films and award shows. Each year, he made it a personal mission to watch all the movies nominated for Best Picture-A tradition that showcased his appreciation for storytelling and creativity. This love for cinema brought him immense happiness and serves as a source of inspiration in his life.

Brandon is survived by his mother Natalie Larson; fathers Craig & Scott Thomas-Forss; his children Ellen and Cooper Thomas; brother Nathan True as well as aunts, uncles, and many cousins who will remember him fondly. He was predeceased by his grandparents Matthew and Joan Thomas, Nathan and Mildred Larson.

Brandon's memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew him. His playful nature, his sense of humor, devotion to family, will leave an indelible mark on all who were fortunate enough to share in his journey. May his memory bring comfort to those who loved him.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Brandon. Devastated does not even convey my emotions. I keep thinking of things I want to ask him or tell him, and am at a loss when I can't. My heart goes out to his dads and mom, as well as his kids, whom I know he loved so very very much. He will be so incredibly missed.

“ Brandon's smile was pure sunshine. His generosity of hugs, kindness, and laughter knew no limits. He was a cheerleader for his friends, coworkers, and kids, and knew exactly how to say something funny or cheeky to lift your spirits. We were all so lucky to share time with him. Love you, Brando.
