“ I remember when Brandy was going through a few things..... something's that broke me down; but she was so positive and strong about the whole ordeal. I was at awwwe how she handled things!!!! I knew she was gonna b ok, cause when I was younger and before louann even had kids louann her self was strong, not that I knew much of what louann was going through but I seen her strength n most things that she did no matter what. Along the way Brandy and I would talk and she always assured me that she was doing fine. I will miss and cherish the times I spent with her old ones and most resent ones! Your winning now Brandy....(insider) love u sweetie. Tell ur Uncle horseshoe we love him

“ Brandy was the only person that I could talk too about religion without being disrespectful, before then I didn't believe in anything greater than Man...She opened my eyes up to the Spiritual side of life, the Good deeds, The Karma...We argued for hours over just the thought of God...hahaha...she would never back down..Strong..Intelligent...Beautiful....Rest in Heaven.

“ I remember when you were little you always had a smile bigger than your ears, you were shy and quiet at times and such a sweet girl, the memories of you, Brittany, terri and TiTi, Monica playing and being tortured by terri until he got spanked. started off with the five of you and my oh my here came more additions to the family, more girls than boys missy justice nysia, Juanita champagne, mahaliegha, maia, little rock, alex and then you gained more siblings josh, destiny, alizae, LiL steve, da'miracle, Mae-mae, mecca, king, Lil Louann, queen, your precious nieces Bri'elle, Ari'elle, Lola mae, plus a few more. there is so many family and extended family members near and far that loves you and so many friends and business partners the modeling community. the family is feeling the pain of no longer having you here for ourselves and we also know that you are now with God And your baby sister Lou and grandfathers uncles and plenty more relatives on the other so we know your not alone, and you were not stingy so we can't be either. you grew into such a beautiful woman that came to accept and realize that life is what it is, no matter Good or Bad and that God is for us all and that he had you, you came through the storms with a greater strength for life and learning, striving to be more and rise above the clouds, and through the word of God your spirit was lifted and you uplifted others, you were helpful, courteous, polite and very respectful even when you held your pain within, you not only had courage for yourself you encouraged others in more ways than one, I prayed and Thanked GOD for allowing me to be apart of your life and you apart of mine, Love you Always Auntie Beep
