“ Brenda, a truly beautiful person inside and out, brought great joy to my life. I have too many wonderful memories to share, but here are a few. We tried our best to have a lot of great experiences. We went to Disney and she was in awe of Its a Small World. The crew let us ride it over and over without getting off. On that trip to Florida, she flew on a plane, touched the ocean, she even ate alligator. She went to her HS prom. She was stunning, of course, with a blue dress that matched her eyes. One of the girls came over to Brenda, knelt down, and said she was the prettiest girl there. Brenda smiled at this. A long time ago, there was a tv show that Brenda enjoyed. The 2 main characters were love interests and during the show there would be some drama between them. Brenda would shed some tears at this. However, they always reconciled in that 30 mins which would make Brenda get a big smile. She experienced weddings (her brothers and mine), horses, swimming pools, all sorts of fun things to numerous to mention. I am so deeply honored to know her. My deepest sympathies to her family and friends. Brenda will forever be in my heart.
