

Brett Allan Sharbono

February 16, 1960 - April 11, 2024

Brett Sharbono, age 64, of NE Minneapolis, unexpectedly passed away on April 11th, 2024, surrounded by his wife and two daughters. Loving Husband to his wife of 40 years Diane, Father to Ashley Washburn and Alyssa (Seth) Ayala, and proud Papa to Cameron and Caylee Washburn, Amiya Sharbono, Seth Jr., Jeremiah, Ezra and Isaac Ayala. Loving Brother to Vicki (Rick) Tousignant, Lori Sharbono, Shelley (Don) Hansch, Mike (Becky) Sund. Adored Nephew to Verlayne Sather and Jenny Oreschnick.

To know him was to love him. His big, beautiful smile and contagious laugh could be seen and heard a mile away. He was the life of the party, the glue to our family and the most dependable family man.

In his prime, Brett loved to play Disc Golf and was an avid bowler. He spent many years owning and operating Movies To Go in St. Paul and NE Minneapolis, ultimately retiring from Bethel College (Sodexo).

In his short retirement, Brett was front and center at all his grandchildren's sporting events, he enjoyed summer days at his sister's cabin and late-night card games with friends. Brett went above and beyond for everyone he loved, and his loyalty and dedication will remain a legacy that will be cherished and missed forever.

“ Brett was a great MFA disc golfer. I had the pleasure of playing rounds with him at the state and world championships. Great power and consistent play. Prays and thoughts to his family and friends. He now is with Porter, Nutt, Klongerbo, and others on the great course in the sky. Peaceful and flying. Tim Mackey

Brett was an amazing friend, competitor, and team mate. His confidence, humor, and supportive demeanor inspired all of us to be better. Brett was the better half of our doubles disc golf team that beat the reigning undefeated team over one memorable season. Thank you Brett for all of your smiles and great memories. My prayers and thoughts to family and friends.
