“ I want you to know that you mean so much to me. I truly can't believe that you grew your wings to fly it was not your time. Words can't say what you truly mean to me; I just want to say that I love you, I will miss you, and you will always be in my heart. I wished you would have called that night, I wished I could have saved you. I will promise to never give up, and that I will do my best to raise OUR baby girl that's on the way. No matter your gone I will always stay loyal and always remember that you are never forgotten. You are my soulmate and best friend! I love you Brian please look over me and your daughter, we love you!

“ I know it's been a couple years since we talked but man when I saw you had passed it hit me hard... So many memories flashed thru my mind all the way from 1st grade to more recent ones, and the one thing they all had in common was that smile. You had a smile and a personality that could light up a room. You were an amazing friend and I wish we wouldn't have lost contact the last couple years. I was a better person for knowing you and I hope you know how much I loved and cherished our friendship. Thank you for all the laughs and memories this world isn't quite as bright without that big ol smile. I hope you found peace buddy. Watch over us Bri Bri - love you

“ Until we meet again, my brother..... I still can't believe you're gone. Life feels different without you here, but your love and strength are still with us every single day. Until we meet again, my brother, I promise to watch over your family like I know you would have done for mine. You gave your all to the people you loved, and now it's my turn to carry that forward for you. Rest easy I've got them. And I'll keep your memory alive in every step we take.
