“ *You don't know me personally but your wonderful daughter Bridget worked in my department at Target. Bridget was such a positive light to have on our team. I always admired her hard work and dedication to each task that she had. Bridget never seemed to let anything bother her and remain positive. The team at Target remembers her fondly and will hold her close to our hearts always. While I know this loss is not easy, please feel comfort in knowing that she will always be there in spirit looking down at you all. May God's love wash over you and give you peace in the coming days.
