“ How can we ever say enough about Bruce?

He was a friend, musician, comedian, fisherman, lover of the outdoors, sports fan, vehicle enthusiast, bus driver critic, diet coke consumer, artist, son, teacher, tambourine player, ice cream eater, derby car racer, volunteer, nephew, cookie baker, country music lover, custodian, gardener, storyteller, bowler with a great ranking, Olympian, leader, important, water balloon thrower, cousin, house mate, actor, creator, builder, movie watcher, singer, and guitar lover. Bruce has been described by others as strong, brave, kind, loyal, compassionate, important, smiley, fun, and a mover & shaker.

To Bruce's abundance of friends at MSS, he will be remembered for being a constant, loyal, friend to all of us. He mattered and is already missed.

“ We were saddened to learn of Bruce’s passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.

Bruce and Steven were good friends at MSS for 12 years. They were happy when they were assigned to the same group. He called Steven “boy, boy”. Steven’s eyes lit up whenever he saw Bruce.

They bowled together on a Special Olympics team. Their friendship was bonded by their love of sports and sports apparel.

They sat side-by-side during the day at MSS whenever they could. This photo is a reflection of their friendship.

Steven and our family will miss Bruce. Rest in peace buddy 🙏
