“ A kind and patient man, generous to a fault, Bruce built a lamp for my office. He took an old brass Bunsen burner and made it into a wonderful lamp. I call it Bruce’s art form. As an engineer, he could see functionality hidden in in a discarded piece of junk. He would repurpose the old, discarded burner. Today, it sits in our living room. Both my wife and I love Bruce’s lamp. Every time I turn it on, I will think of Bruce and his creativity, his generosity and his love and dedication to Christ. Rich and Linda Runbeck
