

Bruce Elliott Tischer

December 13, 1954 - December 1, 2021

Bruce Elliott Tischer was born December 13, 1954 in Luverne, Minnesota, the oldest of four children born to Lawrence and Marilyn (Olson) Tischer. He grew up in Rochester and graduated from John Marshall High School.

Bruce enjoyed music and played lead guitar in a band. As a young adult, he built guitars, as well as a mandolin and banjo. Most of his work career was spent as a drafting engineer. In later years he also did watch repair work in his spare time, which he learned from his dad.

He enjoyed traveling with Pam and his parents after he retired, Deadwood, SD being a favorite destination. He frequently attended car shows and was proud of his 1958 Chevrolet Bel Air.

He is survived by his significant other Pam Reiser of St. Louis Park, MN, and three siblings Rick of Onalaska, WI, Gail (Steve) DeBoer of Rochester, MN, and Larry of Rochester, as well as ten nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents and sister-in-law Pamela Tischer. Service will be 3PM, Saturday, Dec 11 with visitation from 1-3PM at:

“ So sorry to read of Bruce passing away. I worked with Bruce about 40 years ago at FSI in Chaska. He was such a nice guy. I enjoyed his sense of humor.
I'm sure will be greatly missed.
