“ Aunt Bea

Came to stay with us many times last trip was for a celebration She danced outside in my backyard & had margaritas late into evening she had such a silly giddy fun time with her sister Dixie. One night they slept in my bed side by side talking after midnight like school girls, this was most precious and a long time coming.

For hours they laughed & cried talked of old times shared stories & and wished they had done this more together in life it was priceless. I have many memories of Bea, her soft voice her gentle sassy little lady like ways. Her fun loving energy for life. God love her, she's finally home.

Tracy, Dixie's daughter.
