“ I met Marv when I joined General Mills in 1968. We commuted together to work. I was hired by a NYC ad agency five months after arriving at General Mills and left Minneapolis. However, we stayed in contact all these years including his visits to NYC. I am now a hospital chaplain and I asked him a couple of years ago, "What motivates you to visit your wife daily when she doesn't recognize you?" His beautiful answer, "I remember and honor our marriage vows." What better tribute to an honorable gentleman. I will miss his visits to NYC.

“ Oh. I'm so sorry. Marv was the first to welcome me at Sunrise and was a great support. Plus he was interesting and interested in so much, it was always a pleasure visiting together. A real stand-up guy who absolutely adored his entire family of women and was proud of every one of them. I'll raise a toast to Marv and Ruth tonight, together again.

“ I worked with Marv at Mill City Museum. He was such an amazing man: kind, friendly, and always happy to greet everyone who passed by, but more than that, he genuinely wanted to help you. I will miss him a lot.

“Marvin was dear friend and great neighbor. A gentleman and a gentle man; a devoted husband, a father and grandfather who spoke lovingly of his family; a human being that lived well and did so much good, he taught us much in the 6 years that we have known him. Our deepest sympathy to the four of you, his daughters, his extended family, and his friends and neighbors. Rest in Peace, Marv. You don't have to visit Ruth anymore. You are now together again and forever.

“ Sorry to hear of your Dad's passing, JoEllen, Jeri and Julie. Lots of memories of youth on Sheridan. Both your parents so special & such good friends to my Mom & Dad. Dad & he were "buddies". My thoughts are with you at this time of grief.
