“ I worked with Cal at the time of his passing. It is hard to believe it has been nearly 20 years.

Cal was always brought such a positive focus to even the most difficult of situations. I miss his laugh and how his personality would disarm the most difficult of people and leave them liking Cal and smiling.

He was a friend and just a great person who gave more than he took.

Still miss you Cal,

Dave Benson

“ Dad,

I sit here now, nearly three years have passed and not a single day easier than the one before. I find myself still needing you at twenty-two years old. Needing your guidance, encouragement, laughter, lessons, wisdom and most of all your love. Nothing will ever be able to replace the force that you were in my life and the role you played in helping me become the person that I am. So many things seem unright in my life and the largest one is not having you in it. I miss you more than I will ever be able to convey, especially in words. My thoughts are with you everyday and I cherish the moment when I will be able to be with you in heaven. I love you very much.

“ Dear Cal, What can I say. There are not words to put down to tell you how much you have ment to me. All of the time we have spent with eachother talking, and listening to eachother and being close. All our long walks around the lake and movies. Listening to all of those tracks of Beatles music in the car for hours at "Our Spot". Listening to you play for the boys and land singing along. Little dinners we would cook. Bathtime with the boys. Our big furniture shopping trip. Playing with our kids altogether the looks we would get with all our little men in tow at McDOnalds, or at the movies. You were the sweetest person I have ever met. Thank you for being you! Heaven is lucky to have you there. You will be in my thoughts forever! Jen

“ Dear Calvin,

There is no way for me to put forth how proud I am of you. I have not seen you for many years and did not know just what kind of man you had grown up to be. But, there is nothing this side of heaven that I could say to honor your life any more than what you did when alive.

I have learned how responsible and loving you were in your life towards your family, friends, and co-workers. You had become one special person. I only hope with all my heart that you are aware that everyone you touched has a kind word for you and will miss you so very much!! You will not be forgotten! Love you, your Aunt Marilyn

“ Dear Uncle Cal,

My heart longs for your humor, your amazing intelligence, and mostly spending time with you. I regret now more than ever, not making things right between us when we disagreed. We all miss you so much Uncle Cal. Especially Brandon & Cory. The love you had for them, shines right through their beautiful faces, and shines at everyone that looks at them. You did many wonderful things for your boys, and I know that their "Auntie Carrie" is doing her best to raise them as you did. Whenever I hear the Beatles you warm up my heart. I miss you so much, and I am always thinking of you. I love you Uncle Cal

Though it is 26 years since we were first with you in America, we have kept in touch and recall the fond memories of those few short happy weeks with you all.

Despite the modern technology that Calvin helped us understand to communicate more recently, this tragic loss makes the distance of miles too far to encircle you with the love and compassion we feel.

May this time strengthen the family through the coming months to understand the loss of a son, a brother and a Father.

“ Dear Cal,

I will sure miss you! You were and are truly an inspiration for me. The way you balanced your life amazed me; your priorities were always well focused. You were always true and passionate about the things that were important to you. I now more than ever respect the job you did raising the kids; they reflect the love and patience, nurturing and discipline, I only hope to achieve. You also were very dedicated to work, and somehow found time to do things for yourself. I will miss not having you around for the answers, for you always seemed to know them, or at least where to find them. As the days go by and I hear a Beatles tune I will always think of you.

Uncle Cal you were a good father, son, and brother. I loved watching you playing a beetles tune. I remember watching you try to play a tune but you couldn't. You never gave up trying. I know I would have gave up but you didn't. You never gave up on anything. I will never stop missing you and will remember all we did together.*

“ Daddy,

There are no words to describe how much my heart is aching, or how much I will truly miss you. Your smile, hugs, wisdom, and your humor. There are so many things that I regret not telling you, like how much I have always loved you and will long after I'm gone. I'll tell Kennedy what a wonderful, loving, caring man she has for a grandfather. It hurts me so much that you won't be able to watch her grow up, or that you never got to walk me down the aisle on my wedding day. You will always be with me in my heart, my mind, and my soul. You'll live on forever in Chrissy, Brandon, Cory, Kennedy, and me. I love you so much dad and I will miss you every day, and carry your love on.

“ Cal,

I can't even begin to let you know how much I miss you, our long talks solving our little and big problems, and your laughter. I always felt like your big sister, mostly because you seemed to need my help and I will miss you needing me. Cal, I need you now to help raise Brandon and Cory the way you were wanting to bring them up. I will be there for Chrissy, Megan and the boys and you will always be in my heart Cal.

“ Dear Cal

Too young to be taken so tradicallly from your family. The last time I talked with you Cal, was during my trip to the states in '81 ,you were living in Houston at the time so I never got to see you.It is quite strange as Mike , our son is leaving to live in Houston for six months.Our thoughts and love are with each and every one of you, its so hard to come to terms with.

A time to sow and a time to reap.

A time to kill and a time to heal.

A time to weep and a time to laugh.

A time to mourn and a time to dance.

A time to love and a time to hate.

A time to have and a time to lose.

“ Well cal there is not going to be any more of those enjoyable fishing trips that we had together now that you have left us, and that I will really miss. I am thankful though that I was able to spend those days with you on my last trip to the U.S. although I never realised then just how precious those days would become as all the memories of the times we spent together since you were just a tot are now to me. To lose someone that I have watched grow from a baby to manhood and then every thing to end so suddenly is like losing a part of myself. Bye Cal and good fishing wherever you are.

“ Dear Cal,

*I am so grateful that we got to catch up online - I had just expected that we would meet one day on one of my visits to America. It is so sad and so difficult to accept that this wont be...I know though, that when I do catch up with Ken and Shona, with Carrie and Cameron and Chrissy, Megan, Brandon and Cory that there will still be an opportunity to get to know you better as there will be reflections of you in each of them! You live on in the hearts and memories of your loved ones and it is obvious that many people loved you Cal. "ccspry" will stay on my friends list for a long time to come, we never know how much time we have.....thank you for being such a great cousin. “Dearest Cal, our first born. You will forever be in my thoughts and heart. Your sudden passing has saddened me so, there were those things I should have said, done and shared with you but as usual we put them off for another time. You first were a wonderful Dad and will have 4 dearly loved children to pass on your legacy. They were so proud of their Dad. Because of your love & caring for them, I know they will do great things as you did. You set them all on a good start. We will all be together for Christmas but it will not be the same without you, your special time of the year. I'll love you forever Cal.

“ I thank God that Calvin, Chrissy, Tim, Megan, Brandon, and Cory were able to come to Atlanta last summer to visit us for a week. As was usual for Cal the two boys were his main concern and I marveled at his patience with Brandon and Cory. They are two peas in a pod and high energy roudy boys. Brandon is the image of Cal when he was that age and Cory is also. It was quite plain how much they loved their dad and will miss him dearly. Carrie has taken care of the boys enough for them to be at home in her house and are doing well despite losing dad. I'm saddened by the fact that Cal went through another accident that took him a year to recuperate from only to be taken from us anyway. I know he is helping to take care of all the little children up there and doing what he did best on earth. Goodbye Cal I will miss you but never forget you or those qualities that made you so rich in such good friends. Our family will remain incomplete without you. Love dad.

“ I just heard about Calvin being gone. I want to let you know how special he was to my mom and me. He would take time to visit her when she was in the nursing home. When she saw him walk in the room the biggest smile would shine from her face and stay with her long after he left. She told me stories of when he was little and how wonderful a father and man he had become. She really loved him. I never got the chance to thank he or his family for caring so much.

“ Dear Family,

I just wanted to give my sympathy's to the family. I live in the same building that Calvin and the boys lived in. I will always remember the mournings, Calvin and I left at the same time and some mournings were better than others, Calvin and I would always laugh becuae we both knew how hard it is to get two kids ready and out the door on time. The boys were always playing with my kids outside and at the pool. My husband and I really never knew Calvin but when all the kids were playing together Calvin would walk over to Jay and I and we would talk. He was a good father. Are thoughts are with the Spry family.

“ To my dear Sister Shona, brother inlaw Kenny, Cameron, Carrie & esp. Calvins children & family. Piet & we can only feel great sadness esp. loosing Calvin in this way. We know how you all are feeling and can only send our love & support for each and everyone of you.

Unfortunately it is many years since I had seen Calvin & at that time can remember him as just being a great Beatles fan and saved every paper cutting he could. I know Calvin as being really happy and enjoyed life so much. I always enjoyed talking to him on the phone & as recent as 2 months ago. His first words were always Hi Aunt Carol. Piet & Calvin talked a great lot about golf the last words were well we will have a game soon.

We will miss that visit Cal. but can think of you often as you were. Our love to you all Take care sis. Shona we love you all Aunt Carol & Uncle Piet. Kaiapoi North Canterbury New Zealand

“ Dear Cal (& family),

I know we only met once while I was visiting America with my aunt Carol. I was only seven at the time, but I sure do remember you. You drove this great big car and played your music so loud I thought I was going to go deaf. You were so kind to me making me feel so welcome and part of the family. I loved all the sweets you gave me, especially the ones you couldn't buy at home in New Zealand.

I will always remember you, your great smile and love for music and the way you made me feel special. You are a great cousin to have. I wish you peace and your family much love and good fortune.
