“ Dear Kuhrmeyer Family,

My deepest condolences on the passing of Carl. I enjoyed many discussions and lunches with Carl. His thoughtful questions, advice and encouragement over the years were important to me both personally and professionally. He was a pillar of the community and an outstanding supporter of U of MN. He will be missed.

“ I worked with Carl on the construction of the WBYC clubhouse in 1999 where I was the chair of the Committee. He did the heavy lifting by managing the contractor through daily meetings.

Great man and great contributions to the community.
