“ Carla was a childhood bud of mine, too. Roaming around Ashland, laughing, jabbering, (and later, drinking), she was a gal full of sunshine. It was impossible to stay in a bad mood, she'd gently josh you right out of it. We lost touch and then reconnected again in 2000. Oh, what a character she was. What a sweet soul. I'll miss you, my friend. You are an original.

“ I know Carla from childhood. We were those girls who laughed and giggled our way through Sunday school, especially Confirmation practice during middle school. She always had a smile and when we reconnected several years ago we picked up like we had never left off. I know she had a terrible battle and seemed to fight with grace and pride. She was loved and will be missed. I wish you strength and peace 🍷
