

Carlo Romano DePaolis

August 29, 2017

DePaolis, Carlo Romano Age 89, of New Hope. Died peacefully at Methodist Hospital on Tuesday surrounded by his children and grandchildren. In 1955 while living in Florence he met a lovely young nurse from Minnesota. Forty days later they were married. He came to a new country, and for 55 years they raised a family and shared a life of love. Later he created a new life of friendship and community at North Ridge Independent Living. He had a gift, and his caring and warmth affected everyone he ever met. He leaves behind many people on both sides of the world who loved him dearly. Memorial service on Saturday, September 2, 10 am at Church of the Epiphany, 4900 Nathan Lane, Plymouth. Visitation at the church an hour before the service. Private entombment afterward. Memorials to Church of the Epiphany.
