“ Carol was a wonderful neighbor. She shared every Tuesday and Saturday morning with me. We drank coffee and laughed about what new adventures had taken place in life. One evening last summer we had tornado sirens going off and knowing she was alone, I asked my husband to take my golf cart over and bring her to our place. We sat in our basement until the warnings were over, I think she might have been a little bit embarrassed as we caught her in her PJ's and housecoat. We all laughed about it. I'm going to miss our phone calls. She always put a smile on my face. And she truly loved you boys and her grandkids.
