“ Carol was our friend in Hilton Head. We met by accident, although I don't remember the details, and we connected because my husband was from Lebanon. We shared visits even after we moved away and I visited her after my husband's death in 2011. I lost track of her after she moved out of her home. I think we really enjoyed each other and I miss her. I'm glad she spent time with her family and not alone. I looked her up and found the Obituary after meeting another Khorsand, thinking I had found a relative.
Your mother was sweet. I know you miss her.
