

Carol Maxine Lind

September 27, 1932 - February 18, 2021

Lind, Carol M.

age 88, of Plymouth, passed away February 18, 2021. Carol was born in Hermantown, MN, and was a 1950 graduate of Hermantown High School. She attended the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities. She was employed by General Mills for 38 years until her retirement in 1991. During her career, she was a pioneer as one of the first female computer programmers at General Mills. She was also an inspiration for working mothers as she made her dedication to raising her family while simultaneously having a job she truly enjoyed look easy. Sewing was one of Carol's passions, and she was also incredibly talented at embroidery, crocheting, and knitting. As an accomplished gardener as well as a cook, she was always ready to share her favorite recipes and love through food. Carol always looked forward to spending time at the cabin near Perham, MN, that she and her husband, Roger, literally built by hand. Many cherished memories were made on Lake Marion along with their daughters, sons-in-law, grandchildren, and granddog. After retirement, she and Roger enjoyed several winters in Arizona and then summers and falls 'at the lake'. Carol is preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Roger, her parents O'Bra and Helen Clerc, brother Robert Clerc and sister-in-law Shirley Clerc. Carol is survived by daughters Sandra (John) Herman and Julie (John) Holmstrom; grandchildren Krista, Hanna, and Jack; nieces Nancy Slattsveen, Kathy Strombeck and Laura Bloomberg; nephews David Lind and Brian Lind; several grand-nieces and nephews; many friends and former New Hope neighbors. A small private family service to be held at Washburn-McReavy Glen Haven Chapel in Crystal, MN. Memorials are preferred to The Arthritis Foundation (arthritis.org).
