

Carol Reno

July 6, 1939 - October 17, 2021

Reno, Carolann Shirley (Provost)

Age 82, of Blaine, was called home to heaven on October 17, 2021. She is preceded in death by her beloved daughter, Debra Backstrom; parents, Charles and Dorothy Provost; and sister, Barbara Ferry. Carol is survived by her loving husband of 64 years, Wayne; sons, John (Renae) and Ronald (Melonie); son-in-law, Roger Backstrom; brother, Robert (Nancy) Provost; nine grandchildren; many great grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.

Carol was an active member of Christ Lutheran Church in Blaine since its very beginning, where she served in many roles including that of a Sunday School teacher, youth mentor, and member of various committees. She worked at Spring Lake Park High School in the food services department for many years and loved interacting with the students there. Carol spent many years in service as a liaison for Al-Anon and Alateen and spoke openly of the struggles she and her family overcame and gave her love and support to others walking in those same shoes. Carol believed strongly in the love of Christ and her favorite song was "Jesus Loves Me," which she would often sing or hum.

Most of all, Carol will be remembered for her generous heart and warm, welcoming spirit. She was always ready with a cup of coffee and a kind ear.

She believed the best in people and never hesitated to say, "I love you" or give a warm hug.
