

Carol Elizabeth Schaldenbrand

January 1, 2014

Schaldenbrand, Carol Elizabeth 73, of St. Louis Park, MN, died January 1, 2014, of complications arising from ALS. Carol was born in Detroit, Michigan on December 13, 1940. She graduated from Immaculata High School and Marygrove College where she received her teaching degree. After college, Carol entered the Catholic convent of Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM) in Monroe, Michigan, where she served and resided for six years. After leaving the convent, Carol taught at Guardian Angels School in Clawson, Michigan before moving to the Anoka-Hennepin School District in Minnesota. For 17 years, she taught grades 4, 5 and 6 at Ramsey Elementary School. Teaching was her greatest gift and source of pride. She dedicated herself to her students with enthusiasm, creativity and talent until her health prevented her from continuing. Carol pursued all friendships and hobbies with gusto. Her interests were broad and encompassed sailing, swimming, travel, square dancing, music, theater, bridge and games of any kind. She was an avid reader and enjoyed her book club immensely. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frederick and Margaret (Peg) Schaldenbrand and sisters, Mary Ann Valenti and Peg Deneen. She is survived by two sisters, Kathleen (Kit) Thibodeau and Sally Whalen; one brother-in-law, Leo Thibodeau, and many beloved nieces and nephews. A memorial gathering will take place at 2 PM on Saturday, January 25, 2014 at Park Shore Place, 3663 Park Center Blvd, St. Louis Park, MN. Memorials can be made to ALS Association MN, 333 N Washington Ave, Minneapolis, MN 55401 or Vail

Place, 15 - 9th Ave South, Hopkins, MN 55343