“ I first met Carole at a country dance in Morrill. She was 16 years old, and I wasn't much older. She was genuinely nice and had the most beautiful smile. As life happens, we went our separate ways until a few years ago when we re-met. I remember our walks in many parks, ending with a picnic lunch. We also enjoyed day trips with breakfast along the way and ending with lunch at the Sunshine Factory. In more recent times I delivered flowers (Peonies and Lillies) to the place where Carole was being taken care of. I will miss you Carole. Sincerely, your friend, Tony
