

Carole L. Mallam

September 14, 1944 - July 13, 2023

Carole L. Mallam, age 78 of Coon Rapids, passed away peacefully on July 13, 2023.

Carole was born and raised in Minneapolis. She graduated from Edison High School and went on to cosmetology school. She was a hair stylist for 23 years and then she went back to school and graduated from Hamline University with a degree in anthropology. She worked as a program coordinator for several different group homes for developmentally disabled adults in the metro area until she retired. She loved to create things and some of the things she did over the years were sewing, crocheting, scrapbooking and creating cards and bookmarks. She also was a phenomenal cook and baker and loved to can with her best friend, Elizabeth.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Michael Mallam; her parents, Raymond and Ebba Bell; and her grandson, Samuel. Carole will be deeply missed by her children, Shelli (Jason); Mark (Tammy); Brett; grandchildren, Ashley Miller; Emily Lindstrom (John), Lexi Pederstuen (Karl) and Paige, and great-grandchildren Ian and Leo (Ashley), Mateo (Samuel) and Benson and Noelle (Emily) and her best friend, Elizabeth Zema.

Mass of Christian burial will be held on Wednesday, July 26, 2023 at 10:30 AM with visitation at 9:30 AM at The Church of the Epiphany, 11001 Hanson Blvd. NW, Coon Rapids. Evening visitation on Tuesday, July 25, 2023 from 4-

7 PM at Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd.
NW, Coon Rapids.

“ I met Carole decades ago, in a chat room of all places...after her beloved Mike had passed. We both were working with individuals with disabilities but in different settings. We would play games online together and chat. She had a sharp wit and a great sense of humor...and loved her family very much. My condolences for your loss...
