“ Deepest sympathy to all Carolyn's family. To you, Billy, as Carolyn and I cheered our sons on during many years of wrestling with our Fridley Tigers....such fun and awesome memories! Carolyn was a kind and beautiful lady inside and out. She had a loving heart and was loved by many! Happy to have called Carolyn my friend and I'll miss her infectious smile! Hold tight to the many years of memories you have of her, as it will help fill the hole left in your hearts with Carolyn now gone from this place. Our faith tells us she rests now in a much better place! Sending my love, hugs and prayers to you all.

“ When we went to the Olson home for Christmas, Auntie Carolyn always made brandy slushes. To this day, we always still make them for Christmas! Rest in peace Auntie, & give Uncle Don a kiss from me!
