Carolyn Joyce Rowan

Born September 8, 1946 to Lloyd and Hazel Warren. Preceded in death by mother and father; siblings, Helen, Maybelene, Patsy and Betty Joe. Survived by husband Vincent; siblings, Teddy, Judy and Annette (Joan); children, Julie Storbakken and husband Jeffrey, Debra Anderson and husband Roland, Larry Einberger and wife Raphael; grandchildren, Amanda Carter and husband Joshua, Jemma Hernandez and husband Johnathan, Adam Anderson, Jeremy Storbakken and wife Lydia, Gabbie Einberger, Dezirae Einberger; great-grandchildren, Jaxs, Charlie, Paislee and Mateo. Carolyn loved to square dance and sing karaoke (Patsy Kline was a favorite). Carolyn was incredibly adventurous and loved living life. She enjoyed traveling, the outdoors, musicals and being slightly spontaneous at some times. Her hobbies included fishing, baking, gardening and sitting outside enjoying nature. Carolyn was very welcoming to all. She enjoyed making others feel welcomed and pampered. One way Carolyn would pamper others would be to offer up treats like suckers and sno cones (especially cherry flavored). The best way to describe Carolyn would be that there was a mountain of a woman that has a gigantic heart yet a small stature. She was and will always be a huge spirit in a small package. You will be missed Carolyn.

“ My sister Carol was always a joy to be with...being her youngest sis she spent a lot of her time scolding me...I guess I was a brat (which she often called me). I remember when she started dating, when she married and started having her children...seems like so long ago...but everything she did was to make all those around happy, well fed and when you left her house you always had a smile on your face...in her later years Carol and I spent time together going places like Calif, she always wanted to go to the beach and we always did...she loved beach. When she and Vince would come out to AZ we usually still vacationed in California.. We stayed on the Queen Mary and went to Catalina Island and San Diego, and she loved going places she'd never been ...she was quite the jet setter...So many good times to remember with her and our sisters that have gone to heaven. We will someday see her and our loved ones again...God keep us safe and full of LOVE , YA'LL are always in my heart. Love Aunt Joan
