

Carolyn Kay Vincent

January 28, 1941 - April 28, 2025

Carolyn Kay Vincent (Sweiger)

Born Jan 28, 1941. Called to be with our son, Michael on April 28, 2025.

Survived by husband Michael; sister Mary Ellen Heyne; granddaughter Ally Vincent; Niece Mary Jo (Tom) Ohlin and their daughters Maggie, Kelly (Josh), and Sara.

How to describe Carolyn's life. A Mother, Teacher, Artist, and Event Producer. A person who brought happiness to all she met. A tireless creative spirit, always thinking of new projects to challenge her creativity. Her desire to help needy children and animals was a daily topic of conversation and ways to help. Especially by producing fund raising events for the Boys & Girls Clubs for many years. With passion for family, art, theater, and old movies, she filled every day with her love and creativity.

Preceded in death by son Michael, father John Sweiger, mother Ellen and stepfather Tommy Thompson.

Private interment was held for the family at Lakewood Cemetery. A celebration of her life will be announced at a later date.
