

Casey Paul Berglund

April 1, 1982 - August 27, 2025

Casey Paul Berglund, of Minneapolis, MN, passed away on August 27, 2025.

Casey is survived by his parents, Mari and Steve, his brother Scott, (Ashley), proud to be Uncle Casey to Olivia and Miles. Proceeded in death by his brother Jamie, Grandparents Thurston and Irene (Marion) Berglund, Harvey and Bernice Boven.

Graduated from Washburn HS and took some classes at the U of M. Some of you will remember Casey with his big red beard from Oxendale's Market. He appreciated the many co workers and customers that cared about him and we want to thank the Oxendale family for their support. He was kind and compassionate, a whiz at Jeopardy and obscure trivia, an avid reader, a Mn sports fan. He ended his fight with cancer peacefully at home. A special thank you to the staff at the University of Minnesota Hospital, Fairview Masonic Cancer Clinic and St Croix Hospice. We will miss him so much but are confident we will see him again.

Funeral Service, 11 AM, Friday, September 12, at Bethlehem Baptist Church, 720-13th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN with visitation 1 hour prior to the service. Interment Lakewood Cemetery.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Casey's illness and death. My condolences go out to his family and friends. I knew Casey from his long term work at Oxendales where he always had a gentle, kind smile and a little time to chat and be neighborly. A little bit of light just left the world.

“ Casey was one of the kindest souls I've ever met. I have never heard a bad word spoken about him. We used to hang together when we'd were teenagers ,I will always remember the light he brought to my life and the songs that we cherished. Casey, may you rest easy now. When I think of you, I will be surrounded with love because that is what you always had to offer. -Autumn M.
