“ I belong to the Church of St Timothy in Blaine. I met Jean at the daily mass celebrated at St Tim's. We would go to coffee with some other ladies or individually. That is when we became dear friends. We communicated by phone many times. She met my dad (96) when he would come to visit me in Minnesota. He currently lives in a skilled nursing facility in Ghent New York, (just south about 40 miles from Albany.) She often spoke of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The last time I went to coffee was this past May. I am grateful I have this memory with her. She will surely be missed by all she knew.

Sincerely in payer
