“ I knew Cathy from cbs. She was so passionate about teaching the students she worked with as well as her family. I always appreciated having her in the groups I attended. She will be missed. My condolences to her family.

“ Cathy was one of the first teachers I met on my first day of teaching. I was privileged to work in her classroom for 8 years. I learned so many valuable skills about teaching from her that could never be taught at college. She made learning fun for all, was respectful to other teachers, and cared greatly for students. I will miss her dearly but I know she has been called by God and is in a better place.
