“ We are Ann's (her roommate) son and daughter-in-law. Cecilia was a joy who sang with us, had a lively spirit and looked after Ann when she could. She will be missed and remembered.

“ As Cecilia's hospice volunteer, I have known her since March 2012. Cecilia loved life and lived it boldly. She and I liked to spar about one thing or another. We both would laugh at the end of a verbal duel. As we grow older, our definition of quality of life changes. In the time I knew her, her definition of a good life was to have family visit, sit in the sun and soak up its rays, and to talk of whatever came into her head. I am very happy that I came to know Cecilia.
