

Chad McAnelly

June 18, 1970 - June 23, 2019

McAnelly, Chad Age 49, of Prior Lake, MN, passed away on June 23, 2019, from injuries sustained in a motor vehicle accident. Preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Gaylon S. and Thora McAnelly, and maternal grandparents, George R. and Ruth Jones. Also preceded in death by an uncle, Robert McAnelly. Chad was a wonderful husband, son, brother and friend. Being incredibly kind-hearted, Chad was always quick to help others. He was ever loyal and caring to his family, friends and especially to his dog. Chad had a wonderful sense of humor and an astonishingly creative mind. It was this creativity, along with his sharp wit and drive that propelled him through a successful marketing career. Chad was a talented vocalist and guitarist, having sung in the Angelica Cantanti choir at a young age and more recently having played in two local bands. He was athletic throughout his life, playing football, rugby, hockey, golf and successfully completing multiple marathons. He was happiest being with family and friends, walking his dog, listening to music, fishing off a dock and calling the birds around him. We will miss him and hold him in our hearts always. Survived by wife, Sharon (Horozaniecki); parents, James and Anita McAnelly; brother and sister-in-law, Dirk and Michelle McAnelly. Memorial service Sunday, July 14th at 1 p.m., Washburn-McReavy Dawn Valley Chapel, 9940 Bush Lake Road, Bloomington, MN. Visitation one hour prior to service. Memorials preferred to the National Audubon Society or Angelica Cantanti Youth Choirs.

“ Heartfelt thoughts and prayers sent to Chad and his entire family. Chad was a great friend and helped in my transition when I first moved to Brussels and ISB. He was my music ofcinado introducing me to a variety of music that to this day is a highlighted part of my music selection. He was a great friend with an awesome sense of humor and a true sense of friendship. God Bless you and keep you. You will be truly missed, my brother.
