“ Chad, I can't believe I did not sign your guest book on your birthday guess with Kodi being sick I forgot. Well as I have felt your presence the last couple weeks I just knew something was going to happen. Why did the Good Lord have to take Kodi too, he was my everything after you died. He went everywhere with me and was my baby. I asked you to hold his paw yesterday while in surgery and prayed he would be alright. Then I get the call from Dr Heather telling me he is full of cancer, why do our pets have to be inflicted with this awful disease. My Heart is very heavy and hurt such as when you went away. I hope you have found him Chad and you and Sasha have him with as I right. He was so scared when I dropped him off as he sensed my fear, I promised him I would be back in a little while to get him and I never broke promises to him, I can still see him sitting there shaking while he looked at me and that image is killing me. Please be good to him and love him like I did as he was my baby. I am the only one down here now you are all up above, tell Kodi I will see him and all you guys again and it will seem like only a few minutes and then he can Lickalickalicka all over me and Stevens faces. Forever & Always Mom

“ My Chad-Man Merry Christmas honey, being this is our connection you need to wish Grandpa, Grandma, Uncle Greg and your Dad (Mark) a wonderful Christmas too. We had a quiet day, opened presents with Kodi as he is so entertaining, he didn't like my gifts as he would rather have food, but he is funny to watch. I fixed a nice dinner tonight and now I am writing to you. I know you see and hear everything so you must know that Gary passed away a few days ago. Chad if you cross paths give him a big hug for me and tell him I will be there for Linda as much as I can. How sad our guys are all in heaven. Thanks for watching over me and please continue to do so. I love and Miss you so much, of course I miss the rest of the family too but I just wish you could of stuck around a little longer. You would of been 34 years old if you were here, but you are forever 25..... I feel so alone without all of you, thank God for Steve and Kodi as they are my support and my family. The Polar Express is coming on takes me back to my childhood and makes me feel good and what Christmas really is, Wish our Lord God a very Happy Birthday..... Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year Honey

“ Chad-Man! can't believe it has been 9 years today that you were taken from me and others who loved you so much. Eric was over Monday night helping me with my laptop as you don't seem to help from above hahaha. Although as we were seeing how fast it was after Eric installed some new things it totally went blank and shut off. We both looked up and said Chad and Mark we know you had something to do with it. We feel you both around all the time and as I write this I feel you over my left shoulder. Love you buddy. As Eric and I visited he happened to say well I am 34, I just can't believe if you were here you would be that old, but you are Forever 25, I miss and Love you so much but know you are surrounded by all the loved ones who have gone on before us down here. Take Care Sweetie and give your Dad a huge hug and kiss from me and love to Uncle Greg, Grandma and Grandpa. Love Mom

“ Happy Birthday Chad, It seems like only yesterday I had to have Uncle Paul rush me to the hospital for the joyous Event. You made your appearance at 11:40 on a saturday what a surprise to us as we were told you would be a Girl. Your Dad was exstatic... this year you will celebrate your birthday with him. I miss all of you so much but know you are all in a Wonderful place. Give Everyone my love and thank them all as I feel all of you around me everyday. Forever 25 you are but down here you would of been 34. I feel you around me as I write love you a ton Buddy

“ Chad! Chad! Chad!Wow Do I miss you, seems funny this year as Grandma and your Dad have joined you, I am all alone what a strange feeling having my whole Family on the Other side. I remember the Family gatherings so vividly that I for sure know what you are experiencing except that you are all sharing a table with the Lord Jesus what an Honor and such good times for all of you. Steven and I had a wonderful dinner and enjoyed making it together, wish you were all here to share it with us but know you were all here in Spirit.Give Grandpa, Grandma, Uncle Greg and your Dad a huge hug from me and of course hello and love to the rest of the Karlstad's and Olszewski's and oh if you see Kim give him a hug from me too, have a very Merry Christmas as we celebrate Our Lords Birthday!!!Love Forever & Always

“ Chad-ManWell another year has gone by since you left my world and entered a new. Bruno called me yesterday to let me know he was thinking about me on the 8th Anniversary of your passing. He said hello Ma mine and Vinnies thoughts are with you today and want you to know we still care and think of Chad Daily and he ended his conversation with a imitation of your laugh it was Great to hear one more time. I miss you buddy but know you are with your Dad that must be AWESOME and now within the last few weeks Grandma K has joined you along with her Uncle Greg and Grandpa K you are all together and I am the Matriarch of the family now all alone battling my daily fights as I am sure you can see from above. I could use a little fairy dust everyonce in awhile you guys. I love you all so and Miss you all more than you will ever know. The sun is shinning brightly here today but I am sure Every Day where you are.Love youMom

“ Chad,As it has almost been 8 years ago since you went away I miss you more with every day... Well Your Grandma Elaine finally got to soar with the Angels and I am sure she has found her way to you, Uncle Greg, My Daddy and your Dad. You are all watching over me now how crazy is that??? I am of Pioneer Stock and a Survivor but will continue to talk with each and everyone of you daily. What a Party you must be having, Grandma was so sweet and so looking forward to seeing you as she told the Nurses you and Greg were waiting for her upstairs to take her home. They were confused but she knew what she was talking about. I Love you all and be kind to each other...Loving You AlwaysMom

“ Chad, You are on my mind as tomorrow is Mother's Day and another year will pass without you. I miss you so much and wish you were here to help me through this terrible time. I thought I could handle anything after I lost you but I am wearing down buddy as I am about to loose everthing I have. Please watch over me and as without you Grandpa and Greg I am lost. You are all so lucky as this world is a total mess right now and things just are not looking up as far as jobs etc. Can you believe I have been out of work for over 2 years sometimes I think there is no room for me anymore. I so wish you were here as you were so smart and would be highly sought after as you were so great in your field. How is Sasha she was such a Great Dog I bet you 2 have fun and I know Grandpa and Greg must love her too. I am going through things and have found cards from you that have been tucked away, must be a sign you are thinking of me also. I love you buddy and am glad there is a place I can put my thoughts down where you can get them. I Miss You all So Much. Love Mom

“ Merry Christmas Chad, I Wish you would have been here to celebrate Christmas this year as you would have really enjoyed. I spent the day with your sister and her family with Pat and Uncle Mike too. We had a wonderful time lots of laughter and cheer that is what it is all about. The past six years I have not felt like doing anything as I miss you so much but this year I decided to turn over a new leaf and spend with people who love me. Yup Pat too!!! it is great being around him and his great laugh and funny humor. I know Grandpa would be very Happy and Greg too! I spoke with your dad he was very sad and hope the Olszewski's had him over for Xmas as he is so lonely in that home and wants to move. I visited Grandma the eve before Xmas. I feel very alone without all of you, I Miss you terribly. Hope your Christmas was Fabulous and your New year will be also!!! Love Mom

You have been in my mind alot lately as I see your personality and funny one liners come out of my own child, Brody has alot of your teenage traits, all good of course-he he!! I am sure heaven is having a ball with you and sasha up there, sure do miss your smiling face, thank god for photos, as we look at them alot, and your video still sits on the tv stand. It will never be easy to accept that you are not here, at times it drives me crazy actually-I want my kids to know their uncle and see him. Trust me I have told them so much about you that they are very familiar with how we got along and lived, it was great!! I love you buddy and wish for one time I could hold you and feel your warmth and smell your soft hair.take care up there and watch over ever one!Love yaSis

You would think after 6 years it would get easier but the pain is still so Alive. You were my BFF, my buddy, my son and I miss you terribly. I know you are around as I felt you near me as I sat and had my morning coffee, I'm sure you were making sure I would go out and vote I did and I have my sticker on to prove it. I will go to the cemetery this afternoon and I am bringing someone very dear to you with me, yup Patrick is coming with me. We have had some long talks about you it is so nice to have him back in my life, we have all made mistakes through the years and can only go forward. I just wish he would of known what a wonderful Young Man you had become as I was and am still so very proud of you. I miss you Buddy and if you have any pull up there I could sure use some help as I seem to be fighting a loosing battle down here please put in a good word for me will you? “ Good Morning Chad, I hope this morning you are running and playing with Sasha once again. I have to tell you last night was the second hardest day of my life since losing you. Sasha was an extension of our family for 11 years and we all loved her very much I know it was the right thing to do as I could not let her think she was not a good girl when she would have accidents and did not want her to suffer anymore. She tried to please us to the very end. As Steve laid on the floor with her saying his final goodbyes it broke my heart but I knew in the back of my mind you would be waiting for her. As she lay in my arms I told her to go towards the light and look for you, as she went limp in my arms I knew she was in pain no more and with the one she got so excited to see when ever you would come in the door. So reunited once again you have your Sasha at your side. Give her a big hug and kiss from me and Steve and a big lick from Kodi. I love you Chad and take care of Our Bestest Girlie in the World.

“ Merry Christmas Chad This year has been especially hard for me as I miss you so much. Maybe it is the fact that it marked a 5 year period in November. You were and still are the Wind Beneath my Wings but sometimes it is hard to get started. I have been watching John Edwards again and he says to be sure to keep talking to you as you and dad and Greg hear everything I say. Hope you got my toast I gave last night as I sipped a little Devonshire!!!! Wish you could of been here to share some, as it was good!!! Hope you are all having a very Merry Christmas where ever you are celebrating Jesus birth. If it is anything like the ones I use to have with all those Great people that have gone on before me you are a Lucky Lucky guy as those are my most cherished memrories of growing up. Aunt Helen, Aunt Betty, Uncle Irvin, Uncle Iver big and little, and Grandma Ellen what a fabulous family we had here on earth. God love you all and I heard the Christmas Bells on my big Tree, Thank you and I love you all so Much. Please give everyone a big Bear hug from me!!! I love you Buddy and miss you so much!! “ Love of My Life How I miss you!!! You have been heavy on my mind lately probably as I have not written to you and did not wish you Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I know you know that you are in everything I say and do. Paul and his family came and spent Xmas with me and Steve I got to meet his kids and we had a great time. When they went to leave as we were hugging I thought boy I sure miss Chad and Paul pulled me closer and Hugged me so Tight I knew it was coming from you. Thanks Buddy as you always gave the Best Bear hugs!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I have a favor to ask of you, my young friend Chad at work lost his Mom in November her name is Charlene will you check on her for me to see how she is doing. I think that Chad and our paths crossed for a reason and when his Mom had to go so early I think he is here for me and me for him. I will take care of him for his Mom ok. He is a Great guy and you would have liked him I think I have told you that before. 3 weeks ago I had shoulder surgery and was pretty scared but I knew my Guardian Angel was watching over me, it hurts like heck but hope to get better daily. I love you Buddy and thanks for being around me but how I yearn for just one more touch or smell of you, for now I hold onto all the good memories I have of you. “ Chad, Sorry I am a week late but that does not mean you aren't with me always and everyday. I have your picture on my desk and your Beautiful face and smile gets me through each and every day. A New friend in my office bought me white baby roses on the 4 year anniversary (Nov 4th) and a card saying A Life Remembered Always. So pretty and unexpected. Funny how she knew when you would get me flowers it was either yellow or white baby roses. Someone is sending messages from somewhere Mmmmmmm?????? I love you and miss you buddy. I did catch a glimpse of you in my dreams the other night. I love the little visits. Have had conversations with your dad about you, he finally is opening up which is awesome. Lowell and Colleen went to see your dad with me a few weeks ago so nice to see them. Remember Colleen she use to take care of you when you were about 2 her kids all all grown now they have 4. She cried when we spoke of you but we all have good memories, that is what counts honey. Me and every one else loves and misses you too!!! Kodi and Sasha too for sure! “ Chad,

Today marks the 3rd Anniversary of your passing. I miss you so much words can't describe the emptiness I feel. Grandma and I were talking the other night and she asked how long Grandpa, Uncle Greg and you had been gone. I proceeded to tell her the dates and she responded

"Oh My" we have been lonesome for our guys a very long time, and how hard it must be for me being you were so young. Forever "25" Honey and what a Handsome young man you were and I am sure you still are. I have written on your birthday and a few weeks ago but for some reason the people who edit this must of thought I said something a mother should not say to her son. You may not get this either. I hope you look up my friend Nancy's step son as you would have much in common. Take Care my Love and give Grandpa and Uncle Greg a big hug and kiss from Grandma and Me have them give you one in return. Love you and miss you daily!!!

With the holidays approaching you have been on my mind. I miss you buddy but know you are watching over me along with Grandpa and Uncle Greg. As I sat out on the porch yesterday I kept hearing a voice telling me to read the paper. I did and low and behold I read that Uncle Ed Olszewski had passed away. Now both him and Clara are together again. You sure do have a great bunch of people surrounding you and I know for sure along with the Lord you are in good hands. Well sweetie Happy Holidays. “ ChadMan,

I have no idea why when I wrote in your book on Nov 4th that it never posted. Maybe you read it and through it away Mmmmmmmmm??

I went to the cemetary today and put a Little Christmas tree on your grave. Daddy and Grandma and Grandpa Smith can enjoy it too and Uncle Greg and Grandma and Grandpa Hallstrom can see it also. Do we have enough family there. Just me and Grandma K left here on earth. Saw her the other day and she said it should of been her to go, not you. I guess it is a good thing that we do not know what God's plans are for us. For sure it gets easier as time goes by but boy the void of not having your hugs and to see your smiling face tears me a part at times. I always said I just want to be alone but you and me know that is not what I meant. So for what ever reason I have lost my whole family. WOW! all my guys in a matter of years. Unlce Greg would of been 59 this past October, Grandpa would of been 89 this coming December. I miss you all so very much. The holidays are hard as I am always by my self. I still decorate for you cause I know you see everything. Kodi has been acting weird even on the date of the second anniversary. Was that you teasing him out in the living room?

I asked for you to come and visit me in my dreams but guess you were busy. Not a day goes by that I don't speak to your picture on my desk. I love you buddy and just wish I could hug and smell you again, but will have to wait till we meet again. I guess you got to meet one of the "Wild's" players that passed away the other day. That must of been a thrill for you. I bet you are a Meeter and Greeter.

Well Sweetie I will sign off and see if this ones posts or not. I will not renew your domain as only 2 of us write in it. It is good therapy for me to write I started a journal but have lost it in all the mess of the remodel. Have you checked out your new room yet. Guess if I ever hear loud music and noise coming from down there I will know it is you. I love you more and more every day and you are always in my thoughts and prayers. Oh by the way thanks for the Shooting Star!!!!

Love For Ever and Always

“ Hey Bro, Its been a while since I wrote. Today is the 2nd anniversary of you leaving this earth and it is still hard on me. I sure do miss having your presence in my life. That constant comfort of knowing you are there. I feel your presence around me at times when I am going thru pictures of when you were little and I can feel you place your head on my shoulder when I am sad. I know you are enjoying your new world and being an onlooker is a good job for you, you can watch over all your friends and family and help them with the choices they are making in thier life. Little do people know that you are directing them along the right path. I will smile today for you as I remember all the fun times we shared growing up. Putting make-up on you and doing your hair in 100 ponytails, trick or treating around the neighbor hood, you bugging me in my room and not suppose to be in there. You always hanging around me and my boyfriend, they really liked having you there. I love everything I remember about you and I love everything I have in my soul that is from you. You are still my shining star. Keep an eye on everyone from above. I love you!

“ Chad,

I wrote a entry on Friday June 11,th 2004 which was your 27th Birthday, how could I forget, but for some reason it did not post. Remember 2 years ago when we went to Timberlodge Steak house and you had a 16 oz steak. I had never seen you eat that much. Guess you had really grown up even your appetite. That day I realized what a Special young adult you had grown into and How proud I was to be seen with you and know that I was Your MOM. I love you and miss you so much I can't express in words. My Life is so empty with out you, but I keep going as I know that is what you want me to do. "You are The Wind beneath my Wings" I remember to this day when you took my hand in the car and said Mommy this is our song, you were about 8 or 9 I think. I love You Buddy!! I have been keeping very busy with your bedroom down stairs just wished you would be here to enjoy it. If I ever awake from noise coming from down there I will know it was you. Matt and Eric were with your Dad Friday and had a few Soda's in your honor and I am sure you were right beside them. Me I watched your video 4-5 times. I cried and laughed and cried and laughed. I wish I could smell you and hold you once again as I miss your big hugs. Sasha came and gave me kisses as she and Kodi sense my difficult times. I think you send them messages and they get them loud and clear. Well Sweetie till we meet again in my dreams, I love you and Happy Birthday.

“ Happy Birthday Chad,

Today you would have been 26 if you were still Earth Bound. I guess you will always be 25. Lucky You

I will remember the good time you and I had last year when I took you out for dinner at Timberlodge Steak house. For sure it was the first time I ever saw you eat a whole 16 oz steak. We had reached a mile stone in our lives where you had grown in to a fine young adult and we finally connected like a child and parent should. We really enjoyed each others company without having any riffs or tiffs.

Guess we were so much a like we kinda got on each others nerves at times. I love you buddy and miss you ever so much. You will be in my heart forever. I miss the Physical you as you gave me the biggest hugs and kisses when we greeted and for you to always say love you whenever we spoke.

Matt, Jeremy and Eric went to Pikes Peak last week. I know you were right along side them. Matt set your spirit free honey where you can soar with the Eagles.

"Clocks" is playing by Cold Play now which is my Que that you are around. Thank you !

I hope you have Big Bash today with all your new and old acquaintences. I will try and not put out your candles today as Patti tells me I do when I cry. Have a Wonderful Day!

I Love You!!!!!!

“ Chad,

Today marks the 6th Anniversary of your passing. I can hardly believe it. I miss you so much at times I can hardly stand it, but I know I have no other choice but to endure the constant pain and loneliness. Yesterday was Eric's 26th Birthday. This will be a very difficult time for me the next 2 months with Mothers day and your birthday coming up. I'm not a mom anymore only in spirit I guess. I felt your presence the other night when I was watching the Wild. Seems you watched the first period with me, they didn't fair very well though. You need to swoop down and pump them up dear. I went to see Cold Play with Jamie, Eric and Missy when they were here we cried the whole concert. There is a message from you in their songs for sure.

Missy told me she believes you brought her and Eric together. I told her I thought you probably did.

You would be proud of Eric as he has moved in permanently with your Dad as Mary has cancer and is not doing well. He is taking over as you would want him to do. He also is going to make a memorial in your Honor in your room. He misses you a bunch a long with your other friends. Your Dad is fortunate he still has the kids around. I think it is still hard for Matt to be in your old surroundings. Well I am going to sign off for now but just wanted to chat awhile today. I talk to you daily honey and feel you around, hope you are ok where ever you may be and be sure to give my love to Dad, Uncle Greg, Grandma O and PeeWee. I'm sure you are having a grand time with all my crazy relatives. Grandma is fine but wishes she was with you guys. She will be 88 this year can you believe it. Always remember I will love you where ever you may be and "You are the Wind Beneath My Wings" Keep sending me your strength as I surely can use it.

*Love Forever and Always

This seems too surreal to be writing in your guest book. You've been gone 2 1/2 months now and it's still painful to write this.

Greg and Tom still talk about you and how well you always treated them, even though you were one of the "big" cousins. You talked to them and were interested in what they had to say. Tom has your love of hockey and golf. Greg has your affection for computers.

We were looking forward to your graduation from school. With your brains and talent, you would have done well.

We all really miss you!

Happy New Year Honey. The Holidays were not the same this year and never will be again. You and your side kick Eric were the funny men at all the gatherings. Eric and I just keep looking at each other and said weird?? We laughed we cried and celebrated as you would of wanted us too. We felt your presence around us. We all miss you Chad and hope you are Happy in your new place, cause we sure are sad down here. Happy New Year to you, Grandpa, Uncle Greg and Uncle PeeWee and to all the other relatives who have gone on before us. Love you Buddy and miss you daily only to touch you, smell you, hug you, kiss you and to tell you I love you just once more.

I met you through a friend David Farr. You and I didn't hangout a lot but when we did it was always fun. You always seemed to have a good attitude and an awesome outlook on life. So many people take life for granted and worry about so many little things. This unfortunate occurrence will help others open there eyes and be grateful for what they do have. Chad, You will be remembered by everyone who crossed your path. Including the brief encounters.

“ Chad,

I cannot imagine that I do not get to see you next year, at kidd lake, or the year after that, at an important birthday. My heart is breaking, again, for all the years I missed. I remember how we fought while I was babysitting, I remember hugging you on my parents front hill, and loving you so so so much, and how many times, over the years, I felt that I was so blessed that you were in my life. Every time we met, you had the warmest smile and the most sincere hug. I am so proud of the way you were living your life. I am so happy that you were never afraid to be yourself. And I am so confident that our heartbreak is your joy, as you sit with the saints. I will try to rejoice with you, but I will miss you.

“ Hey Chadder-Box This was not the way it was supposed to happen, the oldest is supposed to go first. Ya know!! I have so many memories. Like when I use to pick you up from daycare when you were 4 years old and pull you on a sled all the way home or when we use to go sledding in the backyard or helping coach your first year of Hockey. The rubber band fights we use to have. I also have bribery pictures of you too sneaking beers at the age of 13. I have pictures the of the first time you went waterskiing. I remember the first time you went Deer Hunting you took your game-boy and a radio out in the woods and on the way back home we stopped at the DQ and got some food and I was so hungry that I reached into the bag (Not paying attention of course) and ate the salt packets. That was way too funny. These are just some of the memories that I will always carry with me. I am glad Kirsten got to know you but I wish you had a chance to meet your other nephew Jacob he is a real charcter he keeps us going from dawn till dusk he reminds me of you somtimes with the off the wall things he does but he is a good kid. “ Hey Chad, me and Jamie are really gonna miss you bro. This is the second time I've signed the guest book the first time it didn't go through?! that wouldn't have anything to do with you, would it. Anyway I was telling Jamie that there was only one time when I went over to the crib and there wasn't anyone there, until Matt showed up about 20 minutes later. I just thought that was cool and goes to show you how many friends you had and how many people enjoyed being around you! I will miss having someone to talk to when needed. I won't let this stop me though, I'll still talk to you even though your not here, physically! The memories and good times will always be keep as close to my heart as possible, inside! Well brotha I'll see you eventually only time will tell, hold down shop 'till I get there.

“ I remember meeting Chad, through my brother Bruno, and being envious of the way he tortured my nephew. That's an aunts job! He loved doting on him, it was evident in his grin.

I was shocked that he hugged me upon my departure the first time I met him; I assumed he was following the lead of my brother and Matthew. I later learned that such a gesture was characteristic of Chad...never struck me as the type to follow anyways...and I regret having so few chances to reap in the reward that was simply being around him.

My thoughts are with his family and friends.

This is Brian. I regret that I hadn't gotten to hang with you like we used to. Even though we didn't hang out as much in recent years; when we did, I always had fun. But back in the day when I lived in the hood with Bruno and Matt, I liked how you became a fixture at my house. I remember the day Matt brought you over the first time. You brought your playstation. You also brought tons of music to listen to. We had a blast, all four of us didn't we? I appreciate all the support you gave my band. I am still numb. This doesn't seem real. I guess Heaven musta got boring, so God sent for you to liven the joint up. I give my deepest sympathies to your family. I miss you...

You were the Wind Beneath my wings and my sunshine. You kept be grounded even if you made me oh so mad sometimes. I know your reading these Chad as you already have been helping me with my stupid computer questions. What ever will I do with out the hugs and smiles you had for me each time I saw you. You have been with your dad for almost 2 years, but believe me honey not a day went by without you in my constant thoughts. I Worried about your safety where ever you were. I can't begin to imagine what I will do with out you in my life. We have had a tough road to hoe with Grandpa, Unlce Greg and Peewee. WOW now you have been snatched from right under my nose. I feel your strength buddy and keep holding me up. I told Grandma the other night and she loves and misses you too, Although I think she is in another world but hopefully yours soon, so she can watch over you till I get there. Oh boy I bet you all are counting the days.(Hahahahahahaha)

My house is filled with your presence and I know when I came home from your dad's last night, you had been here with Sasha and Kodi. Thanks for watching them. I met your friend Jaimie yesterday and I know what you mean she is a very lovely girl inside and out. Pretty sure she is in good hands. The people at your work are all in shock as we all are.
