“ To all of Chad's family and friends, I am praying for you.

I knew Chad when we worked as RNs together @ Unity Hospital. I loved working with him and we had some good talks. He supported me through some difficult times just by walking through life beside me for a little while.

“ Mary, Robin and Tim, Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in all Chad's friends thoughts and prayers.

I've know Chad for over 30 years, been through thick and thin with Chad and our close knit friends...Ive experience some amazing times and real heart felt talks with Chad:)

From the time on my first overnight camping trip with Chad and Squires (age 10 or so) too driving 120 mph down 110th street on Chad's motorcycle (acting like ages 10 but really 25)!! Ive experience many great memories...and it comes down to the the one most important thought I have of Chad, is that he has always had the the biggest "heart of Gold" around the people he was associated with...! Loving, willing to listen and get engaged..a true gentleman!! I miss him soo much:(

I have nothing but positive prayers and thoughts...

Im sad and confused like most, but have the beautiful memories and experiences I've shared with Chad, friends and his family, will always be in my heart!

God Bless...and Rest in Peace.

“ Sorry for you loss.Hold on to the precious memories you have of Chad. For this will help you get through the rough moments.For it is never easy losing someone we love so very much.May you find comfort in knowing that just as in the day of Lazarus, God promises our loved ones will live again..(John 11:43,44 and Job 14:13-15)

“ I am truly saddened to hear of the loss of one of my best childhood friends. We have had so many amazing and wonderful times together. We also made some fabulous memories. We had a tight group of friends in high school. It has been great seeing all of them follow their dreams in life. My dad's favorite memory is with Chad and a couple of his friends coming down the hill on Stanley Curve riding motorcycles with the police car following behind making sure they all went home. One of my oldest memories was when I was 11 and heard Chad's voice over a walkie talkie before I had even met him. That was my first introduction to him. We have shared many great times together. My heart and prayers go out to Mary and Tim and his father and family. I am truly sorry for your loss. Squires, Buelow, Huttner, Hanson, Best, and Hoffman you are all amazing friends and I am so sorry your hearts are heavy!
Much love and many blessings!
Chad may you rest in peace and never be forgotten!

Really sad to hear this. I met Chad when we were both travel nurses at an assignment in San Luis Obispo, CA. We haven't been in contact for some time but I always remember him affectionately. He was a good egg.
