

Mrs. Charlene Frances Carey

February 25, 1932 - July 22, 2018

Charlene F. Carey, of North Oaks, MN, and former long-time resident of Fredericksburg, peacefully passed away on July 22, 2018 at the age 86 from complications related to Parkinson's Disease. Charlene was born February 25, 1932 in Fredericksburg, Iowa to Charles and Ruth Morgan. She graduated with the Fredericksburg class of 1951. In 1953 she married Wayne Carey, a former Chickasaw County businessman. They had four sons: Wesley, Randy, Ron, and Arlen. She was a member of First Baptist Church in New Hampton until 1979 when she and Wayne moved to Texas. She was widowed in 1998 and in 2005 moved to the Twin Cities, Minnesota to be close to her sons. While in Minnesota, she joined senior communities and enjoyed outings while spending time with her sons and their families.

Charlene was quiet and kind and always ready to serve the needs of others. She proved to be a dedicated mother as she admirably raised her sons. She held a deep faith and loved the Lord Jesus Christ.

Charlene was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Ruth Morgan, husband Wayne Carey, and son Wesley. She is survived by her son Randy (Deb), son Ron (Sue), son Arlen (Amy), five grandchildren Nicole (Keith), Matt, Josh, Lily, and Jasper, two great grandsons Lucas and Andrew, and her sister Lois Cornwell, and several nieces and nephews.

A service will be held Friday July 27th at 4:00 pm at the Waverly Gardens Chapel in North Oaks, Minnesota. A graveside service will be held Saturday July 28th at 11:00 am at Rose Hill Cemetery, Fredericksburg, Iowa, where she will be laid to rest next to her husband Wayne and son Wesley.
