“ Chuck was generous, funny, kind, and a great all around person, one of the best that I have ever known. He was always in good spirits, always uplifting, and fun to be around. Even when things weren't perfect in his life he didn't let that affect the way he treated those around him. He was always quick to humor, and really knew how to tell a joke. He will be deeply missed, but the memories I have of him and his family will be cherished for my entire lifetime.
