

Charles "Chuck" Moline

October 22, 1958 - January 31, 2026

Chuck Moline, passed away suddenly on Saturday, January 31, 2026. He is survived by his beloved wife Martha Morgan, mother Jeanne Moline, sister Barb (Scott) Mitchell. He is predeceased by his father Curt Moline and brother Greg Moline.

Chuck was a beloved family member, devoted to his mother Jeanne and little brother to sister Barb, brother-in-law to Scott and uncle to David (Michelle) and Jenny Mitchell. In addition, he became a fixture in the extended Morgan family. Quickly assuming the role of well-loved brother-in-law to Mary (Bob) Snediker, and Michael (Dawn) Morgan. Uncle to Jim (Eryn), Bobby (Rosanna), Frannie and Libby Snediker, Ciara and Jade Morgan. Proud "grand" uncle to Isobel and Josephine Mitchell, Ophelia and Ferris Snediker, and Lillian Snediker. Steadfast friend to cousins Craig, Anne, Jeff, Debbie, John, Susan, Bret, Marcia, Sally, Sang, Emily, Kevin, Sarah, Evan, Rachel, Izzy, Sam, Zoe, Jude, James, Lucy, and Dominick.

Chuck was a cherished friend to many. His band of fellow committed fishermen were the source of much joy and continuous amusement. He was a kind and patient colleague to a number of coworkers at Xcel Energy where he worked for many years. All would agree the most common phrase friends use to describe Chuck: just the nicest guy.

In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to North Memorial Health Foundation.

“ Martha, stunned by your card this afternoon, I missed Chuck's passing completely. 😭 All those years fishing together!!! Muskies, walleyes etc. New places, big fish, wonderful memories. And you! He was so excited when you two first connected! (I didnt want to see his LD phone bill from Eagle Lake before you two were married!!) Sympathies from my house to yours. Best Wishes as you deal with all. AND so sorry I missed you earlier. Sad evening here too. Chuck was an excellent partner, memories of out trips last forever!! (Ill give you a call shortly)

“The nicest guy” describes Chuck perfectly. Chuck was a friend and a mentor to me at Xcel. Much of what I know about the power industry and Energy Supply I learned from Chuck. We had many spirited discussions (on the same side) over the 2016 elections and shared many a lunch at Sneaky Pete's laughing and fixing the problems of the world. Chuck adored Martha and wasn't shy about saying so. Chuck will be dearly missed by all those who knew him.

Chuck was always the Friendliest Guy in the Room when I saw him. It was just his nature I guess. It says a lot about the way his Mom and Dad raised their kids.

I'm going to miss seeing you brother at our future events.

RIP 🙏.....
