“ Judy and I were saddened to hear of Chuck's passing. Look up class in the dictionary and you will find Chuck's name. We grew up together playing in accordion recitals at Traficante's on Central Ave at age 12. Later the U.S.Navy. Stayed in touch over the years, miles apart. We played the Polish Palace golf tournament. Last time I saw Chuck was in Browerville, Mn. He drove with family to pay their respects when our mother passed. There with a warm smiling face one can never forget. God Bless him and all his family. Chuck will be missed. We were fortunate just to know him. He's resting in peace now with a SMILE. Our condolences to all the family.

“ Have known Chuck for over 50 years. Played baseball and Jr. Bowling at East Side Lanes. Spent many hours at the Polish Palace with many drinks in front of me at what I called the "Cheers of Nordeast". On Fridays at 5:00 Chuck would be on the customer side of the bar with Jan, winning at pull tabs and a lot of meat from the meat raffle. They were very lucky. Good times . . . great memories. Chuck will be missed by all!

“ Dear Uncle Chuck, Thank you for all of the Polish Palace and Christmas memories! I remember playing PacMan and getting my butt whooped. Was that game rigged? You were always very generous. My parents still have pictures of me in my kids size Polish Palace T-shirt (red and white). We never got our bowling game in, but I will still hold you to it in the next lifetime. I should probably practice now so I can catch up ;) Thank you for being my Godfather.

“ With deepest sympathy to Natalie, Kim, Dana, Fred & Sharon. To Chuck:- Thanks for letting me borrow your Firebird to impress a lady on a date.- Thanks for kicking our butts in softball playing on the field off 49th ave in North Mpls. Old guys versus the young kids.- Thanks for showing me Nordeast and every bar in the area all in one night. - Thanks for the first time we had Christmas together. The Timex watch was a surprise and never expected to receive anything. But thats when I learned who you are. I could only assume you either traded in your Gold Bond Stamps or they had a few excess in inventory were you worked.- Thanks for bowling in the Father/Son tournament. My dad wasn't a bowler and you took the time to be my partner. I thought we were going to win knowing you were a scratch bowler. What I didn't realize was there wasn't much handicap and we didn't place in the money. I did learn how to bowl better because you inspired me.- Thanks for showing me that their is more than one "Cheers Bar" and it's not located in Boston. Walking in and seeing Turk, Larry, Gordy & Tim sitting in the corner of the bar and you always the server, there was never an empty glass."na zdrowie"- Thanks for teaching me how to bid on a bowler when organizing the Calcutta Tournament. It was the first time I learned about $500.00 I spent making only $2.50 an hour and lost. But you were a great host when you closed down the pool table when someone was playing, put a piece a plywood over it, slapped on a table cloth, and out came the best Polish Food in town.- Thanks for having concern of your patrons, especially when someone was hit by a car, you were out there in a flash. When the medic showed up his leg looked like he had a bone protruding outward. You reached into his pocket and pulled out a Ham sandwich that he took from the buffet table. He got up and walked home.- Thanks for taking us to Rudolphs. First time I learned how to eat great ribs.- Thanks for taking us to Nyes for the very first time. Prime rib that layed over a large plate and Lobster the size of Poodle dogs.- Thanks for taking me fishing and showing me how to use the largest sucker minnows to catch the biggest Northerns I have ever seen. We always said not to tell anyone of the 8lbs walleyes we caught. You always had a cooler of beer, pop and food.-

Thanks for the golf tournaments at Daytona.- Thanks for being the Godfather of our first child.- Thanks for showing me that if you put your mind to anything that you want,it will be. And yes you did win the Peterson Classic, and I got my 300 game.But most all, thanks for being the warm hearted, giving person that you are. You will be missed and will always cherish the memories.

“ To the Wallis Family, I was so saddened when I saw that Chuck had passed away. I have so many fond memories of him and that smile of his. My dad, Dick Carlson, and Chuck were very good friends for years and his friendship meant the world to him. After my dad passed in 1994 I kind of took my dad's place in visiting the Polish in mornings to say hi to Chuck. I'm so very sorry for your loss. All my love, sympathy and prayers to all of you.
