“ A neighbor from our past who has never been forgotten by us, nor did he forget us. Our family loved him always. He was a loyal friend, a happy, friendly, generously offering his help kind of man. He raised his two wonderful children, Jodi and Jeff, along with us as we raised ours. Our family is grateful for having known him. Laure' Tabor

“ To the Herickhoff Family,

You have my deepest sympathy and prayers in the passing of Chuck. I always enjoyed visiting with him at family gatherings. Chuck and I both enjoyed the polka music of Little Joe's Polka Band from my hometown of Jackson, MN. He always had a smile on his face and lit up the room wherever he went. I will miss seeing him at Christmas this year. May he rest in peace.

“ Our neighborhood always was surrounded with fun and laughter. Our neighbors were an extension of family. I was so lucky to have wonderful neighbors growing up. The last couple years we were able to connect up again. Sharing memories and stories. I remember knocking on Chucks door asking him if he remembered me. Of course it was just like yesterday. Continued prayers to the family as they grieve for their dad.
