“ Dear Mather family. I'm so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. Growing up with, and living down the block from you all are still my favorite memories. Again, so sorry.

“ I'm so very sorry to learn of Chuck's passing. From about 1996-2012, Chuck and his family lived across the alley from me. Chuck was unfailingly welcoming and kind, and immediately welcomed me to the neighborhood. And so very helpful - a couple of times I was selling or giving large items away, and he would come over to be present to make sure I was safe with strangers in my home. He plowed my driveway (as well as other neighbors'), invited me to his garage/mancave to chat, and was the nicest guy. I know how proud he was of Tyler and Thomas and all of his family.

Chuck and I had some wonderful conversations in our driveways about the joy, sadness, and messiness of families and relationships and jobs and our lives. It was clear he cared deeply about his family, friends, neighbors, and this fragile world. Those of us who still live nearby who knew Chuck have spent this week remembering Chuck, his wide smile, and his welcome to everyone who was near.

I mourn Chuck's passing, and send wishes of condolences and comfort to all of you who loved him.

With sympathy,
Cynthia Hendricks
