

Charles Bernard Maxwell

August 29, 1936 - April 2, 2025

Maxwell, Charles B. age 88 of St. Francis, MN, passed away peacefully on April 2, 2025 leaving behind a legacy of love, integrity and devotion to family and friends. Charlie was a man of remarkable strength, work ethic and dedication. Charlie was preceded in death by his father, Bernard Maxwell, his mother, Luella G. Maxwell, and his siblings, Gerald, Darrell, Darlene and Leona Maxwell. Survived by his wife, Candace, his brother, Larry (Kathy) Maxwell, his sister, Pam (Tom) Moser; his children, Valarie (Robert) Vickstrom, Charles Jr., Lynette (Mike) Hutar, Dewayne (Tammy) Maxwell, Heather Maxwell and Tracy Maxwell, as well as 8 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, in 1955 after graduating high school Charlie enlisted in the Army serving proudly most notably in France. He married LaDonna A. Westphal on December 28, 1955 and together they had 4 children, Valarie, Chuck Jr., Lynette and Dewayne. In 1984 Charlie married Candace L. Maxwell who brought 2 daughters, Heather and Tracy into his life who he proudly adopted. Charlie had a deep devotion for the outdoors enjoying hunting and fishing and creating cherished memories at his cabins in Duluth and near Akeley, MN. In later years Charlie discovered the joys of golf becoming an avid player, his passion for the game was matched only by friendships he forged along the way. Charlie was one of giving, his kindness, generosity and love touched the lives of all who knew him. We will always treasure the memories of his laughter and his love.
